
Unit 15

Summary and Evaluation

Partners In Health

Zanmi Lasante

Bo-Mphato Litsebeletsong tsa Bophelo

Inshuti Mu Buzima

Abwenzi Pa Za Umoyo

Unit 15: Summary and Evaluation

This unit is designed to assess whether participants remember the content of the training and are able to assess and analyze information in order to be capable problem solvers.

Unit 15
Summary and Evaluation

Partners In Health
Zanmi Lasante
Bo-Mphato Litsebeletsong tsa Bophelo
Inshuti Mu Buzima
Abwenzi Pa Za Umoyo

Key Points of Unit 15: Summary and Evaluation

- Accompagnateurs are not expected to memorize medications or symptoms.
- Accompagnateurs should recognize danger signs and refer patients to the clinic.
- Always consider the viewpoint of the patient, the accompagnateur, the clinic, and the community.
- Consider the psychological, social, and practical aspects of a situation before deciding what to do.

Key Points of Unit 15: Summary and Evaluation

- Accompagnateurs are not expected to memorize medications or symptoms.
- Accompagnateurs should recognize danger signs and refer patients to the clinic.
- Always consider the viewpoint of the patient, the accompagnateur, the clinic, and the community.
- Consider the psychological, social, and practical aspects of a situation before deciding what to do.

Key Points of Unit 15: Summary and Evaluation

- Accompagnateurs are not expected to memorize medications or symptoms.
- Accompagnateurs should recognize danger signs and refer patients to the clinic.
- Always consider the viewpoint of the patient, the accompagnateur, the clinic, and the community.
- Consider the psychological, social, and practical aspects of a situation before deciding what to do.

Key Points of Unit 15: Summary and Evaluation

- Anticipating common problems or situations will prepare accompagnateurs when dealing with difficult situations.
- Accompagnateurs need practice answering questions about disease and treatment.

Key Points of Unit 15:
Summary and Evaluation

- Anticipating common problems or situations will prepare accompagnateurs when dealing with difficult situations.
- Accompagnateurs need practice answering questions about disease and treatment.

Key Points of Unit 15: Summary and Evaluation

- Anticipating common problems or situations will prepare accompagnateurs when dealing with difficult situations.
- Accompagnateurs need practice answering questions about disease and treatment.

Congratulations!

You have completed the
Accompagnateur Training!

Partners In Health

Zanmi Lasante

Bo-Mphato Litsebeletsong tsa Bophelo

Inshuti Mu Buzima

Abwenzi Pa Za Umoyo

Congratulations!
You have completed the
Accompagnateur Training!

Partners In Health
Zanmi Lasante
Bo-Mphato Litsebeletsong tsa Bophelo
Inshuti Mu Buzima
Abwenzi Pa Za Umoyo

Congratulations!
You have completed the
Accompagnateur* Training!